CMCD 014

Release May 2007

Dancing according to me is the result of three days of intense recording sessions with two of the worlds finest accordionists. Sitting face to face Øivind and Jörgen delivered an outstanding variety of more or less virtuous pieces in the great acoustics of the main hall in the old Courthouse in Nyland, Mid Sweden. For this unique CD, containing several world premiere recordings, they've scanned their massive repertoire to come up with a sublime collection of accordion duos. Some written for this setting, some not, and some pieces taken so far out of their original context that You might wonder what's gonna be! But the result is astonishing. Øivind's and Jörgen's deep knowledge of the accordion tradition, and their dazzling technique forms along with an over all musical wisdom an interpretation far beyond common. Even if You are new to the delicate sound that two accordions can produce, or if You are a connoisseur that can tell the difference between a Petosa and Zero Sette and with loads of original Frosini albums in Your collection - this CD will still get Your attention!

Dancing According to me is the 14:th release on the exclusive Courthouse Music label.
